First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

Adult Question: Do you think that God was "well pleased" by your actions in recent weeks? Why?

Child Question: What good thing could you do this week that would be pleasing to God?

FROM FR. DAVE'S DESK

As the Christmas season draws to a close I thank the parishioners for their continued warm welcome to I.C. and for the many expressions of prayer, encouragement, and gifts during this season of celebrating Christ's birth. Why and How Catholics Read the Bible

Join us for this faith enrichment opportunity on Saturday, January 16th from 2-4 p.m. in Church.

We will consider questions like...

- Who wrote the Bible and where does it come from?
- Do Catholics interpret the Bible like other Christians?
- Are there Catholic traditions not found in the Bible?

The annual St. Louis Marian Conference will be held from January 15-17, 2010 at the Millennium Hotel, 200 S. 4th St. Call for information or registration 314-423-1075 or STLmarianconference.com.

As a gentle reminder: Please keep the following in mind, in regards to posture during Eucharist (Mass): General Instruction of the Roman Missal, number 43: ...In the Diocese of the United States of America, they should kneel at the beginning and after the singing or recitation of the Sanctus until after the Amen of the Eucharistic Prayer, except when prevented on occasion by reasons of health, lack of space, the large number of people present or some other good reason. Those who do not kneel ought to make a profound bow when the priest genuflects after the consecration. The faithful kneel after the Agnus Dei unless the diocesan Bishop determines otherwise.

So, in general, it is anticipated that if the Catholics present are not kneeling they are standing. You may be seated if: you are unable to stand for that long a period a time (due to advanced age, infirmity of some kind, or perhaps are caring for an infant or toddler) or you are a non-Catholic guest. Remember, you are welcome to kneel in the choir loft (I have tried it myself, and in most places it is reasonable). However, since there are no kneelers it would not be required, and then one should follow the adaptation described above. The Church emphasizes the important of posture for the faithful at our celebrations. Any non-Catholic guests are welcome to join us as we change our posture from standing, to sitting, to kneeling or they may be seated if they wish. As we come together to worship, please remember these norms.
