Continue to address bullying with meetings; another meeting will take place November 18 at 6:00. The school is working on promoting dignity and respect.

Red Ribbon Week finished successfully. Also with Safety Kids and a fun Halloween parade, it has been a busy fall.

Mr. Drinkard and Mrs. Emmel were taped to the wall after over 4000 cans were brought in for the Samaritan Center.

Mrs. Kuster and Mrs. Bexten took student volunteers over the Sisters of Carmelite Building to rake leaves—four truckloads.

Still collecting for Honor Flights.

Time and Talent sheets are still coming in; many still need to be returned. Please spread the word.

Joe Schaefer’s Budget Report: Applauded the work of the 2nd Grade Immaculata Club for such a successful Fall Fling. Encouraged other groups to work together like this. The money brought in by the fall fundraisers needs to be more proportionate each year—more ideas to supplement the fall dinner fundraiser.

Schaefer House Shopping Night—Nov. 24, 5:30-8:00, Susie Hinds will donate 10% of total profits to IC.

Amy Knollmeyer Photography will be donating half the amount of the sitting fee back to the school.

Please know any other businesses are always welcome to support IC with fundraising ideas.

No Parish Council Meeting report to present.

Finance Committee for Home and School will be meeting in January.

Catholic Schools week will be January 31-February 6. Chili Supper will end Catholic Schools week on February 6, headed by Sue Arnold. An Art and Music show will also take place at this time. Please sign up to help with the chili supper.

Janie Wyrick's report on Scrip: At this time, have made $14,000, which is $3,000 ahead of last year.

Idea for teachers: An option will be made to purchase Scrip (in any denomination) for the teachers, who will then be able to pick scrip of choice. This gift will be given prior to the holidays. A flyer will be going out.

Athletic Report: IC recently hosted the Volleyball Catholic Bowl, made $6000 for IC. The basketball teams have been picked and basketball season will start soon.

Girls Scouts: Lost the 5th grade troop, but K-4 and 6 & 8 still active.

Joe Schaefer made an acknowledgement to Mike Shepherd and what an active participant and supporter Mike had been of IC and IC School. He will be sorely missed.

Also an acknowledgement was made to the passing of Matt McGrail's father today.
