

INTERPARISH GRADE SCHOOL BAND SPRING CONCERT 2010

WHO: Everyone!!! Invite all your friends and relatives...

WHAT: The Annual Interparish Grade School Band Spring Concert featuring the Fifth through Eight Grade Concert and Jazz Bands of Immaculate Conception, Saint Joseph Cathedral and Saint Peter Interparish Schools.

WHERE: The Miller Performing Arts Center on the corner of Madison and Miller (musicians enter from Miller side and audience from Madison).

WHEN: Sunday, May 2, 2010 at 2:00pm. Students should begin arriving at 1:15 and are to be in their seats by 1:45 with their instruments and music.
(Any students owning folding music stands should bring them for the final song...)

WHAT TO WEAR: Dress code for the afternoon will be semi-casual. Students should wear what they normally would for a dress-down day at school, following the dress code guidelines. Please respect this...

HOW: Sometimes I actually don't know. Each year I am astounded and amazed by the students who become members of this program, seeing how much they improve as either beginners or veterans. Compared to other programs in the area, you will agree that it is practically a miracle when you hear your children's performances, despite the small amount of class time they are allowed. It really boasts of their talent. Imagine the results if all of them would practice regularly like the few that do... I realize that at this time of year, there are dozens of conflicts with this performance, but I hope that all the students will take pride in their accomplishments over this past school year and make the effort to attend. THIS CONCERT DOES SERVE AS THEIR FINAL EXAM! A signed note giving a plausible excuse will be needed if missing the concert, and a make-up final will be given...
