

Monday Memo
January 28, 2008

Safety Patrol: Brock & Molly
Band Classes: Wed. only

Spelling: Our story theme this week is Life on Coral Reefs. Crossword puzzles are due on Tuesday. Lists are due on Wednesday. Our test is Friday. Please review words daily. This week's list is as follows:

colonies	teem	tranquil	dwell	crevices
lurk	evading	inflate	deceit	camouflage
contaminate	preserve	aqueduct	aquarium	marine

Religion: We will be busy celebrating Catholic School's Week and celebrating our theme as "Catholic Schools Lighting the Way." We will have an All School Mass on Monday at 9:30. We will continue working on Chapter 8, where we will be learning about the Holy Spirit and the sacrament of Confirmation. We will be talking about the symbols of the Holy Spirit.

Math: We will continue talking about factors, prime numbers, and factor trees and reviewing unit 4-C. Minute 16 will be due next Monday.

English: President Reports were excellent! We will finish sharing the rest of them this week. We will be working on packets from our Boomerang Jack assembly, and students will work on making their cover pages for their science projects in computer class.

Reading: We are working on The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe as our literature unit. There will not be a vocabulary quiz this week. We finished The Sign of the Beaver as our read aloud. We took the AR comprehension test in the upper lab. We watched the movie last Friday. The students voted on our next read aloud, and we have started The Indian in the Cupboard by Lynne Reid Banks.

In AR, we have taken 307 quizzes and have passed 283 of them. Our class average is an 83.5%. We have a class total of 905.7 points. Our school total is 14,790.8 points. Our class goal is to try to reach 1,000 points by Valentine's Day. Less than 100 to earn!

Keep reading for the Jan. book-it and Six Flags reading incentives. Students are required to earn 10 AR points for book-it. Forms are due on Friday, Feb. 1st. Students are required to read 360 minutes for Six Flags. These forms are due on Thursday, Feb. 7th.

We have read 63 books for the Scholastics We Care Program.

Important

Thank you for the donations of candy, cleaning wipes, and Christmas cards. You all are wonderful!

The DARE officer visit was very neat. The students enjoyed visiting with police officers in training from all over the state.

Enjoy your week!
